

Best in business

NINA'S Chocolates, Gymer is the big winner of the Leader's Sutherland Shire Small Business Awards for 2002.

To much applause, it was named the Shire's Most Outstanding Small Business at a gala presentation before a crowd of more than 360 at Sharks International on Friday night.

Nina's Chocolates proprietor George Magganis, holding the trophy, is a happy man as he poses with winners of the awards categories. The awards, also proudly sponsored by Sutherland Shire Council and Cronulla Sharks, are a prestigious highlight of the Shire year and reward business excellence. Finalists from public nominations are judged by an independent panel.
